Columbus Blues Challenge Application

Changes to the members or the name of winning Acts, without just cause, may result in forfeiture of prize monies and the right to represent the Columbus Blues Alliance at the International Blues Challenge.

Performance slot times are approximate; actual times may vary if the event is ahead of or behind schedule. Acts must be ready to take the stage immediately after the scheduled preceding act, or the Challenge will proceed to the next scheduled act. Such acts may be allowed to perform later (at the Challenge Director's discretion), but will incur a ten-point penalty to their Average Weighted Score.

The Columbus Blues Alliance will be the final arbiter of any disputes. Disputes must be received in writing at the Columbus Blues Alliance mailbox no later than 7 days following the Challenge. The Executive Committee will review all disputes and communicate its decision to the Act's undersigned agent.

ONLY the members of The Act, listed herein, will be granted free admission. Spouses/significant others, family members, equipment techs, etc. must pay admission!!!
